SB 64/4

1. It happened in the 14th century.
2. The hero of the story is Robert the Bruce.
3. They won at Bannockburn.
4. They ran away.

2. Arbeitsheft S. 48/49, 2

1. The soldiers were at Bannockburn, near Stirling.
2. They were unhappy because they were hungry, it was cold and rainy.
3. The soldiers didn't get enough food, they were hungry.
4. The soldier hurt his leg.
5. They were happy because they have won.
6. The English soldiers ran away.

48/49, 3. mögliche Lösung:

The Scottish soldiers had a very hard life. The battle with the English (army/soldiers) was really awful. In the end the Scottish won the battle and the English soldiers ran away.

3. Lehrbuch S. 65, Aufgabe 5 a) oder b)

SB 65/5a) Musterlösung:

Robert the Bruce was born in Scotland on 11th July 1274.

He became king of Scotland in Scone in 1306.

His most famous battle was at Bannockburn, near Stirling, in 1314. He fought against the English there and won. After that there was peace in Scotland and Robert was a good king. He died at Cardross on 7th June 1329.
